Head Teacher message

It was amazing to see so many of you at our Harvest Festival last week. The feedback we received was very positive and I have to say I was very proud of the children, their singing and poetry was fabulous. I would also like to once again thank you for all your generous donations, these were taken to St Marys Church for their Sunday Harvest Service and then delivered to the Food Bank in Bedford. I would also like to thank the members of the church for their continuous support, it doesn't go unnoticed and is very much appreciated.

I am pleased to say that not only have all the school violins been loaned out but we have had to source two more from the Bedford Music Hub. Therefore, all the violin lesson places are now full but Mrs Brown has said that she if there is interest she may run another group after half term.

We have once again been invited to join the Harpur Trust Art Competition, Last year a number of children had their art work displayed in the Cecil Higgins Art Museum. An artist will be visiting the school later in the term to work with the children to produce art work for this year's competition. Fingers crossed we will again have some winners.

Next week we are going to have a very exciting week, we have Stone Age Day, Stuarts Day, a trip to Milton Keynes Museum and a football match after school, COME ON PINCHMILL!!!

Pantomime Trip – Tuesday 9th December – If you haven't confirmed your child's attendance please do so by Friday 24th December.

That brings us to half term and as this is the last update before the holiday I would like to wish you a happy half term.

Mrs Bailey
